Jesus said to them,

“A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.”

So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people
by laying his hands on them.

He was amazed at their lack of faith. MK 6:4-6

On Thursday, July 11th, we celebrate the Memorial of Saint Benedict, Abbot.

The future, "Father of Monks," was born in 480 A.D. at Norcia, about 70 miles from Rome. At a young age he left his studies at Rome in pursuit of a life of sanctity and spiritual perfection. He soon settled in the remote area of Subiaco and lived in a cave for three years under the direction of a hermit named Romanus.

After the death of Romanus, Benedict accepted the invitation of some nearby monks to be their abbot. The monks, however, were quite wayward and would not take the counsels of Benedict and conspired to poison him. Saint Benedict, suspecting their evil intent, blessed the goblet of poisoned wine offered him, whereupon it shattered. He then went back into his solitude for a short period of time. At the age of 31, he began founding monasteries and by the age of 39 there were twelve monasteries to his credit. The most renowned is Montecassino where he wrote for his monks a rule somewhat tempered from the severity of Eastern Monasticism. The "Rule of Saint Benedict" became the norm for all Western Monasticism and is still practiced today by Benedictines the world over. The Benedictine Order has given the Church over 57,000 known saints and 35 popes, of whom 17 are Saints or Blessed.

As we honor this important figure in Church and world history, reflect on his humble beginnings.

He witnessed the immoralities of his day and fled from those temptations to embrace a life of holiness. Reflect on the fact that God also calls you to flee from sin and embrace a life of holiness. When that happens, God can do great things through you in ways you may never comprehend.

Follow the example of Saint Benedict and commit yourself to holy daily living, and leave it up to God to use you as He wills.

Saint Benedict, you witnessed the moral corruption in Rome at an early age and fled to the wilderness to seek out God's will. Through your prayerful obedience to God's will, inestimable good fruit has been borne. Please pray for me that I will always seek out God's will in my life, leaving behind the many temptations to sin that I encounter, so that God can use me in ways known only to Him. Saint Benedict, pray for me. Amen
